★ Highlights: Gunsan Gyeongam-dong Railroad Village, Famous Bread from Lee Sung Dang Bakery, Hand pick some of Korea seasonal fruits

This morning, we will visit a Gunsan Gyeongam-dong Railroad Village, a must-visit place when Koreans come to Gunsan. On first glance, resembles any other older neighbourhood in Korea until you notice the pair of train tracks that cuts straight through the middle of the village. In the past, trains from the Paper Korea factory- a factory that made paper used for print news- would cross through Gyeongamdong on these tracks carrying loads of supplies and finished products. Though the trains are now a part of history, the humble neighbourhood and visitors can now walk along the 2.5km railway tracks, passing by the old homes that have sat here for decades. Here in Gunsan, don't forget to try out the famous Bread from Lee Sung Dang Bakery, the oldest bakery in Korea. Next embark on a search for the freshest seasonal fruits as we bring you to source in Yongin. Here at the local fruit farm, you can get to hand pick some of Korea seasonal fruits. Thereafter, enjoy a relaxing scenic coach ride back to Seoul.
