DAY 7: FEZ

★ Highlights: The Royal Palace, The Mosque of Bouanania, University of Quaraouiyne, The El-Attarine medersa, The Fez Medina

Your city tour of Fez will include viewing the exterior of The Royal Palace though general public are barred from entering the Palace, but it is still an impressive sight even from outside. The Mosque of Bouanania built between 1350 and 1357, is the biggest in Fès, and the hallmark of Merenid architecture. The University of Quaraouiyne is one of the most imposing in Morocco. It houses a university which is thought to be the oldest in the world and which was founded in the middle of the 9th century at a time when theology, grammar and Koranic law were the basic subjects taught. The El-Attarine medersa, situated opposite it, is considered to be the most beautiful in the medina. Explore The Fez Medina with their typical bazaars which has been designated UNESCO World Heritage of Humanity Site. Wander through its souks and alleys which are unchanged since the Middle Ages. Old Fes is stereotypical exotic Morocco - narrow winding alleys, craft bazaars, food markets, mosques, madarasas (theological seminaries), dye-pits and tanneries. From a hill top one will be able to have a panoramic view of this old impressive city, and that what appeared to be a line of trees is actually a flourishing oasis.

DAY 8: FEZ - MEKNES - CHEFCHAOUEN

★ Highlights: Bab Mansour, Place El Hedim Square

After breakfast, depart for Chefchaouen via Meknes. Considered to be one of the most beautiful gates in the world, Bab Mansour was constructed at the entrance of the imperial city in the beginning of the 18th century. Place El Hedim Square, located exactly between the old town and the imperial city, houses a covered market which becomes busy at dusk with fire-swallowers, storytellers, animal trainers and jugglers creating an atmosphere different from anything you are used to. After lunch, enjoy a walking tour of Chefchaouen, including the medina. Walking around the town with its whitewashed walls can be a nice change to the hustle and bustle of the cities of Marrakech and Fez. The waterfall to the east of the medina is a meeting point for local residents who come to cool off, chat and do their laundry. An old mosque on a hill behind the waterfall overlooks the medina and its crumbling tower offers great views of the town.
