Day 1

SINGAPORE – DENPASAR – UBUD
Meals on Board, Dinner

Check in at Singapore Changi Airport for your flight to Denpasar.

• Tanah Lot - One of the most important seaside temples in Bali. The temple is located on a huge rock by the sea. When the tide is high, the rock is surrounded by sea water. The whole temple is isolated from the land and stands alone in the sea water; it is only connected to the land when the tide is low.

Day 2

UBUD
Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

- Ubud Royal Palace - Upon built in the 16th century, it is home to the current Ubud's king and the royal family.
- Tegalalang Rice Terraces - Make a photo stop at Tegalalang rice terraces, one of the frequently photographed greeneries in Bali.
- Have your lunch with view of the famous Kintamani Volcano. This beautiful scenery, makes the island have a unique intoxicating pastoral scenery that is different from other islands

📍 Tegalalang Rice Terraces

- Pura Tirta Empul - One of the famous temples on the "Island of thousand Temples" in Bali. With a history of more than a thousand years, the stone shrine is covered with moss, but the spring is still the same as before. The scale of the Shengquan Temple is large and complete, and all the characteristics of the temples in Lidao can be seen from here. Residents of the island often come to take a bath for safety.
- Uluwatu Temple - The sits on the edge of a cliff 70meters high overlooking the Indian Ocean.
- Puja Mandala - See how 5 of Indonesia's major religions can live harmoniously side-by-side, despite their differences in beliefs and ways of worshipping in a single compound.

Day 3 | UBUD – GIANYAR – KUTA Breakfast, Dinner

- Silver Dragon Statue - is the biggest Statue in Indonesia made entirely from silver weighing 720kgs. Named Naga Sanga Amurwabhumi, the statute is listed on the Guinness World Records.
- Batubulan Art Villages - An art village known in Indonesia and the world. The stone carvings and batik in the village are listed as important local handicrafts, and the village is also famous for its stone carvings. Here you might as well buy a few sculptures or various garden decorations as souvenirs.
- Batuan Temple - One of three village temples dedicated to the gods of the Hindu trinity.
- Bali Zoo - Bali's first zoological park is a wondrous place where you can learn the behaviour of over 500 rare and exotic animals in a lush, tropical environment. A park where you can participate in fascinating animal adventure activities, some of which are unique experiences of their kind in Indonesia.

Day 4 | KUTA – SOUTH COAST – JIMBARAN – KUTA Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

- Turtle Island - Hop on a glass bottom boat to the small Turtle Island covered by white sand and learn about the Life-cycle of the turtles on the island.
- Pandawa Beach - One of beaches favoured by the locals and tourists alike.
- Garuda Wishnu Kencana Cultural Park: Situated on the highest point in southern Bali. The new majestic eagle statue is 120 meters high and took 28 years to complete. While having dinner here, you can also enjoy entertainment performances.
- Coffee Factory: The most precious coffee in Bali is civet coffee, commonly known as cat feces coffee, which is a relatively famous product in Bali. The coffee here is strong and refreshing, and it is also good for the stomach.
- Jimbaran Beach: Get ready for an open-air seafood dinner at the popular Jimbaran Beach while overlooking Bali's ocean sunset.
