Day 7 PAGE – HORSESHOE BEND – ANTELOPE CANYON – GRAND CANYON NATIONAL PARK OVERNIGHT STAY

Breakfast / Dinner

Early morning We'll bring you to Antelope Canyon. This colorful Canyon was a famous long and narrow canyon with a walk able corridor at the bottom of the canyon floor. It was formed by flash flood flows into the cracks of the Navajo sandstone and wind erosions. With the penetration of daylight through the narrow opening from the top different kinds of light reflections and colors were created. That makes this area a popular location for photographers and tourists. Then we'll proceed to an area where the Colorado River made a 280 degree turn around the Horseshoe Bend(it takes about 15 minutes from Antelope Canyon to Horseshoe Bend) shape of rock. Continue to visit one of the seven scenic world wonders – The Grand Canyon National Park. Experience the overnight stay at the Grand Canyon area with a Buffet Dinner Inclusive!

Monument Valley is an area of free standing sandstone rock forms that rise majestically from the desert floor. Up to 1,000 feet tall, they create a truly magical desert landscape. The buttes in this valley are distinctly stratified and have three main layers. The bottommost layer is Organ Rock shale, the layer in the middle is de Chelly sandstone and the layer at the top is Moenkopi shale. The beauty of the area is a fact well documented by the numerous Western movies and television commercials for which Monument Valley has served as a backdrop. Motion pictures, "Stagecoach", "How the West was won," and "Indiana Jones" were filmed here. If the weather is fine and no wind, you may have an optional Jeep Ride to explore into the desert land, it's amazing! Head for Page.
