DAY 3: MOKPO - MOKPO

★ Highlights: Wolchulsan National Park, Cloud Bridge (Hanging Bridge), Dancing Sea Fountain

This morning, head to Wolchulsan National Park for a scenic hike. You will begin the trail with a combination of woods and bamboo. After which, some part of the trail is pretty rugged and steep. As you make your way up, there are a few clearings you can stop and take a look out. After about an hour or 2 of going up, You can reach the Cloud Bridge (Hanging Bridge). You will cross the bridge, 120m from the ground, 52m long, and 6m wide. The surrounding landscape really makes this Cloud Bridge a great experience. When you reach the top of Wolchulsan Mountain, there is a large flat granite rock that can fit up to 300 people. Staring down from here gives you a great view of Wolchulsan Mountain. Mt. Wolchulsan also contains a number of fine vantage points overlooking the meanders of the Yeongsangang River. On the way down to Dogapsa and Muwisa Temples, there is a field of reeds by the road that becomes spectacularly beautiful during fall. End your day with an enthralling display of light, sound and water at Dancing Sea Fountain.

DAY 5: JEONJU - UIWANG - SEOUL

★ Highlights: Gunsan Gyeongam-dong Railroad Village, Famous Bread from Lee Sung Dang Bakery, Uiwang Rail Bike

This morning, we will visit a Gunsan Gyeongam-dong Railroad Village, a must-visit place when Koreans come to Gunsan. On first glance, resembles any other older neighbourhood in Korea until you notice the pair of train tracks that cuts straight through the middle of the village. In the past, trains from the Paper Korea factory- a factory that made paper used for print news- would cross through Gyeongamdong on these tracks carrying loads of supplies and finished products. Though the trains are now a part of history, the humble neighbourhood and visitors can now walk along the 2.5km railway tracks, passing by the old homes that have sat here for decades. Here in Gunsan, don't forget to try out the famous Bread from Lee Sung Dang Bakery, the oldest bakery in Korea. Next embark on an exciting adventure at Uiwang Rail Bike. You will get to try out a stress-free rail bike experience along a 4.3-kilometre-long trail which takes about 40 minutes to complete. Besides getting some light exercise, you will also get to enjoy the beautiful lake view Thereafter, enjoy a relaxing scenic coach ride back to Seoul.

DAY 6: SEOUL - SEOUL

★ Highlights: Bukhansan Hike, Baekbeom Square Park at Namsan Mountain

This morning, enjoy a scenic trek along the unpaved paths between Bukhansan to the south and Dobongsan to the north along the Bukhansan Dulle-gil Trail. This unique trail have been restricted to public access due to the thwarted 1968 mission by 31 North Korean commandos to assassinate South Korean President Park Chung-hee, but the path was reopened in July 2009 under a reservation system. The natural ecosystem on this path has been well-preserved through about four decades of no human contact, and the gentle ascents and descents make Uiryeong-gil an easy walk. Next, proceed to Baekbeom Square Park at Namsan Mountain. Beside enjoying the tranquillity of Namsan mountain you will see the well-known statue of Kim Gu - a leader, an educator, a politician - symbolizes the spirit of patriotism which led to the Korea's independence.
